

The Journey - Aaron Becker

You need to complete 3 of these activities per week which is equivalent to the number of writing lessons you would have.

Use this link to the picture book to help you: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DRsmuveKWuk>

Write a diary entry that retells the story from the girl's point of view.	Draw a map of the city the girl encounters.	Write a prequel to this story that explains where the red crayon came from. Who owned it before the girl?
Imagine that you could draw a magic door from your classroom / bedroom wall into another world. Draw the view to the other side.	Create a written version of this story. Can you include direct speech?	Find out about a famous journey, explorer or expedition from history. Create a poster to inform people about this journey.
Write a newspaper article about a girl who goes missing through a doorway in their bedroom.	Look at the different characters in the story. Can you create your own illustrations of them? This video has some tips from the author / illustrator: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=unNTAZDH_DQ&amp;feature=emb_title	Choose one of the settings in the story and describe it in detail. Try to include a simile, alliteration, personification and a metaphor!